Woodhouse-Luxford Wedding. A very pretty wedding was solemnized yesterday afternoon at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Rock Creek, when the rector, Rev. Joseph Fletcher, united in marriage Miss Caroline

Elizabeth Luxford and Mr. Henry Robert Woodhouse of Princess Anne, Va. "I Love You Truly" was beautifully rendered by Miss Margaret Webster, and the altar was decorated with cut flowers. The bride was becomingly attired in a dark-blue tailored suit, with toque to match. She wore a corsage bouquet of violets, and carried a white and gold hymnal. Her maid of honor was her cousin, Miss M. Eleanor Hibbert of Virginia, who was gowned in dark-blue tricolette, with picture hat, and carried a large bouquet of cream-colored roses. The bridegroom was attended by his cousin. Mr. R. W. Bonney, and the ushers were Mr. Franklin B. Chapman of Jersey City, N. J.: Mr. H. Gordon Edmonds. Mr. Edwin F. McKnew and Mr. William Moster of Washington. Elizabeth Luxford and Mr. Henry monds. Mr. Edwin F. McKnew and Mr. William Moster of Washington. Mr. and Mrs. Woodhouse left immediately after the ceremony for New York and other northern points. Their future home will be in Princess Anne, Va. Mr. Woodhouse saw considerable service during the late war, having been with the 29th Division both on the Mexican border and overseas.

Miss Jessica Smith entertained at the Club of Colonial Dames yesterday afternoon. Her guests included Mrs. Bickett, wife of the Governor of North Carolina; Mrs. William Kearny Carr, Mrs. John S. Tomlin-son, Mrs. Paul Joachim, Mrs. Albion Wilkes Tuck and Miss May Little.

A reception committee of Washington women will hold a reception in honor of Mrs. MacSwiney, widow of the lord mayor of Cork, Ireland, at the Hotel La Fayette, Monday, De-cember 13, at 9 o'clock.

There will be a sale of Christmas cards and Christmas gifts for the benefit of the Children's Outdoor House, at 11 West Kirk street, Chevy Chase, Md., Saturday, from 2 to 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

There will also be an exhibition and sale of Italian articles of artistic interest. The charity to be benefited is one of large humane appeal being the care and training of benefited is one of large humane appeal, being the care and training of war orphans in Italy who without such help might become social deplicts. The "colonies" are trade and agricultural schools, where the boys are not merely fed and educated, but are fitted for productive work in the shop and on the farm. The movement was very near the heart of Baroness Romano Avezzana, wife of the ambassador of Italy, and when in Washington she wielded much influence to assist the charity. much influence to assist the charity.

N. & W. VOTES ON STRIKE.

Trainmen Set Forth 14 Grievances Against Bailroad Company

ROANOKE, Va., December 9.—A strike vote is being taken by members of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen on the Norfolk and Western railway system, which, according to N. D. Maher, president of the road, followed a demand for increased pay. About 2,500 men are involved.

The ballot submitted to the men, it is said, sets forth a list of fourteen grievances against the company.

The trainmen's grievances grew out of efforts to revise an agreement between the brotherhood and the company, dated October 13, 1917.
